

Bavarian TelemedicineAlliance

The Bavarian TelemedicineAlliance (BTA) is charged by the Bavarian state ministry of health to coordinate the activities in the field of telemedicine in Bavaria central contact point in Bavaria regarding:

- coordination of crossover project activities
- public representation of telemedicine activities
- support for the acquisition of funds
- further education in the field of telemedicine

Improved patient care through:

- quality and efficiency enhancement
- supporting the intersectoral communication
- education of different interested groups
- empowering of the health system in rural areas
- cooperation with scientific researchers, education and industry
- for further information visit: www.telemedallianz.de